GEORGINA LARA

A Farmyard with Figures & Horses

Oil on Canvas
14 x 21 inches (35.6 x 53.3 cms)

Artist description:

Georgina Lara, a British artist, was active throughout the 1860s. She was based in London and exhibited 16 works at the Royal Society of British Artists in Suffolk Street and also at the British Institution.

She is well-known for her farmyard scenes and her works can often be recognised because of her tendency to put large number of small animated figures into her canvases.